

ORLANDO VALLADARES

Tegucigalpa, Honduras · orlando.valladares.fernandez@gmail.com · orlando-valladares.github.io

EDUCATION

Dartmouth College , Hanover, NH	Sept 22'-June 26'
BA. in Economics modified with Anthropology awarded with Honors	GPA 3.76/4.0
Course citations for excellence in International Trade, Economic Anthropology & Economic Geography; Rufus Choate Scholar 2025-2026; Winner of the Robert A. McKennan Prize in Anthropology prize for exemplary paper
CASA Cuba Study Abroad Program Havana	Aug-Dec 23'
Took Economics and Philosophy courses in University of Havana, and Casa de Las Américas, one of Cuba's premier research institutions.	GPA 4.0/4.0

RELEVANT WORK EXPERIENCE

Abdul Latif Jameel Poverty Action Lab (J-PAL) , Guatemala City, Guatemala	July 26' -
Research Associate
- Support the design and implementation of a Payment for Ecosystem Services (PES) study, combining quantitative and qualitative data collection to understand program delivery, community participation, and take-up. - Contribute to evidence-based development research in Central America, with a focus on implementation, partner coordination, and the use of rigorous evidence to improve program design
National Institute of Anthropology and History (INAH) , Cacaxtla-Xochitécatl, Mexico	Jun – Sep 25'
Intern
- Ethnographic follow up to 'Heritage Belongs to All' campaign begun in 2016 which sought to work with the archaeological site's surrounding rural towns to create a participatory community space. - Fieldwork and volunteering with the Fray Julián Garcés Center for a mixed media project on the shared origins of the regions two most pressing issues: the contamination of the River Atoyac and the trafficking of women and girls.
Sustainability Office , Hanover, United States	Jun 23' – Nov 24'
Waste Diversion Intern
- Helped start and maintain the 'Free Market', a completely free campus mutual aid thrift store with a focus on sustainability, and creating a space for political dialogue - Managed logistics for the 'Move-In sale', organizing warehouse operations (overcrowded offsite location) and their sale to incoming freshmen.
Tokyo University , Tokyo, Japan	Jan – March 24'
Philosophy Student Researcher
Authored an article on Enrique Dussel's Philosophy of Liberation, presented at the "Committed Philosophies in/from Latin America and the Caribbean in the Anthropocene" workshop.
Cofradia Center Bilingual School , Cofradia, Honduras	Jan-Mar 23'
Middle School English and History of Honduras teacher
- Co-created a standardized Freirean ESL curriculum to improve learning outcomes for 300+ students. - Created and imparted Spanish language curriculums for middle school History of Honduras aimed at understanding the complex and underdeveloped present. - Imparted English instruction tailored to preparing students for university application. Still in contact.

PROJECT GRANTS, FELLOWSHIPS & AWARDS

The Olga Gruss Lewin Post-Graduate Fellowship , Dartmouth Center for Social Impact	$35,000
Financed a year of employment with J-PAL
Thomas D. Sayles Research Grant, Dartmouth Ethics Institute (x2) , Dartmouth Ethics Institute	$7,000
Financed both works discussed in «Relevant Academic Work»
Dialogue Beyond Dartmouth Award , Dartmouth Freedom of Expression	$6,597.20
Given to lead student group to III Encuentro Mesoamericano de Resistencias in Intibucá, Honduras (not carried out due to school security restrictions).
International Internship Grant , John Sloan Dickey Center for International Understanding	$5,500
Financed the internship with INAH, Cacaxtla-Xochitécatl, Mexico.
Student Research Fellowship , Leslie Center for the Humanities	$1,800

- Financed philosophy research project in Japan
- McKenna Prize, Dartmouth Anthropology Department $500
- Given for the ‘The Fraught Estate of Housing Supply’ paper

RELEVANT ACADEMIC WORK

Lost to Mitch: Evidence from nightlight years and Hurricane Exposure in Central American Municipalities in website

ECON 64 Culminating course in development economics paper with Professor Paul Novasad, given major honors for exceptional 60 level paper

The Fraught Estate of Housing Supply: Home Unaffordability and the Good in the Upper Valley's Trade Labor Shortage in website

Mixed-methods ethnography presented at 2026 Society for Economic Anthropology 46th annual meeting, “The Anthropology of Dwelling” at Colorado State University

SKILLS & INTERESTS:

Languages: Spanish (native), English (fluent), Portuguese (conversational), French (conversational)

Technical: STATA, Claude and Codex, some MATLAB and Python

Additional Interests: Futbol, Liberation Theology and Philosophy

RELEVANT ACADEMIC WORK AND WORK EXPERIENCE FROM PAST LIVES:

Grounding Liberation: Remembering Dussel’s relation to Heidegger through ‘Ground’

Philosophy article presented in “Committed Philosophies in/from Latin America and the Caribbean in the Anthropocene” (U. Tokyo). Supervised by professors Stromback (U. Tokyo) and Kulvicki (Dartmouth)

Guancho y el Bongosero Mentiroso link

Assistant Producer

Documentary of two master percussionists in the Cuban town of Güines. Winner of the 2024 Berlin Indie Film Festival award for Best Director

Spanish & Portuguese Department, Hanover, United States

Mar 23’ - Jun 26’

Drill Instructor

- I led regular Spanish language instruction for undergraduates, emphasizing other-culture critical consciousness.

PhilLab, Hanover, United States

Sep 22’ -Mar 23’

Research Associate

- Collaborated with graduated students on cognitive science research focusing on belief representation and epistemology.
- Developed 3D models using Blender for participant experiments, after overseeing the recruitment process.
- Visualized data with MATLAB for analysis with the team.
- Became certified as a ‘Scan Buddy’ assisting in fMRI scans and ensuring accurate, safe operation of research equipment with participants.

